

Six Pump Court Chambers (Angelica Rokad)

Public Access – Employment Tribunal

Angelica Rokad can advise both employees and employers on ordinary unfair dismissal and wrongful dismissal claims. Angelica Rokad can also represent both employees and employers at the Employment Tribunal.

Timescales

Timescales for your case may vary depending on factors such as my availability, the complexity of your case, the need for additional documents and the other side's approach. However, as a guide more straightforward cases tend to have a hearing date four to six months of a claim being made.

Fees

I may charge fixed fees, which means that you will be charged a set amount of money for the work. Below I have provided estimates based on the ranges of fixed fees for my work. All fees include VAT (where applicable).

If I charge fixed fees, these may vary depending on your needs – for example, your fees may be towards the higher end of the range if you need more detailed advice and/or you have a more complex case. If you have a particularly complex case, your fees may also be higher than the estimates below. There are also likely to be additional costs which can be discussed.

Stage of case	Ranges of fixed fees (estimates)
Written advice on your claim	£750 - £1000
Preparation of case, including meetings with you and assistance with drafting of any tribunal documents	£600 - £1200
Preliminary hearing	£750 - £900

First day's tribunal appearance	£1500 - £2000
Tribunal appearances per day, after the first day	£750 - £1000
Remedy hearing (to decide compensation)	£1500 - £2000

This example complies with the additional price and service transparency requirements as, in relation to the relevant Public Access service, it states:

- The pricing model (fixed fee, although other pricing models can be used. See the hourly rate example below);
- Indicative fees and the circumstances in which they may vary;
- Whether the fees include VAT (where applicable);
- Likely additional costs;
- The price information in the form of ranges for my services (although price information can also be provided in the form of average fees for barristers in chambers, or in relation to other individual barristers – see the mandatory rules on price transparency in section 2);
- The Public Access service in question and a description of the service, including a concise statement of the key stages (allowing consumers to sufficiently understand the service); and
- An indicative timescale for the key stages.
