Profile

Bridget joined Chambers in 2009, initially managing the Library and Information service. More recently she has taken on additional responsibilities which include managing all marketing work, including the Chambers website, social media output, advertising, and also managing the Legal Directory submissions process. She also assists in organising seminars and training events both inside and outside of Chambers.

Her responsibilities also include managing internal service contracts and resources and putting together Chambers tenders for local authority work as well as assisting with other internal projects.

Prior to joining Six Pump Court, Bridget managed the Library and Information service for over 10 years at Garden Court Chambers and has worked in the tax and legal information centres of several legal and accountancy firms.

Bridget's working days are Monday- Wednesday (full days) and Friday afternoons.
