

SEMINAR INVITATION

17 & 18 JUNE 2015

'POCA & Ancillary Relief'

With part 10A of POCA looming, the issue of third party interests is more significant than ever before and you are invited to a seminar that puts this into the context of divorce proceedings.

Presented by Jane Campbell of 6 Pump Court Chambers and Ian Whitehurst of both 6 Pump Court Chambers and 7 Harrington Street Chambers we will be given an overview of third party spousal rights in POCA covering the following:

- Key case law re spousal rights in Poca/no special treatment than other third party rights
- Tainted spousal interests in assets/knowledge of criminal activity
- Issues re enforcement stage & spousal rights
- CPS/Third Parties intervening in family proceedings
- Attacking the benefit figure re through family courts
- Divorce as a tactic by unscrupulous defendants
- Conflicts of law issues - family v criminal courts:

Liverpool

17 June 2015

7 Harrington Street Chambers

7 Harrington Street
Liverpool L2 9YH

Registration – 5.00pm

Seminar 5.30 pm (prompt)

London

18 June 2015

6 Pump Court Chambers
Temple
London, EC4Y 7AR

Registration – 5.00pm

Seminar 5.30 pm (prompt)

These events are kindly sponsored by:

Ian Whitehurst is "A much praised criminal fraud junior. His experience encompasses a range of fraud and money laundering issues. He is a talented and pragmatic defence counsel, tactically astute and very hard-working." He is very good with clients. (Chambers and Partners 2014)

Jane Campbell acts for husbands and wives in a wide variety of cases from those who have very little in the way of assets, some of whom are also subject to bankruptcy proceedings, to those where the assets are considerable, including high net worth cases. At the end of last year, Jane was instructed on behalf of the husband in a case concerning numerous business assets, which was heard by the President of Family Division Sir James Munby and was reported: R v R [2013] EWHC 4244 (Fam)

To reserve a place or for any enquiries please contact helen.lynch@cohencramer.co.uk