

SIX PUMP COURT
PRESENTS

Four Environmental Seminars

- September Challenges to Regulatory Notices (under the Environmental Permitting Regulations, Water Resources Act, Environmental Protection Act, etc): review or statutory appeal, and substantive principles
- October UKELA Waste Working Party seminar – topical issues in criminal enforcement by the regulators
- November (4th November) Liability and Remedies in Contamination Claims (land and water): maximising your client's recovery. This seminar includes case studies and a contribution from Philip Wilbourn FRICS
- December Planning Issues Deriving from EU Directives (EIA, SEA and Habitats): recurring questions, the role of EU law, the HRA and the Charter of Fundamental Rights

Seminars take place from 4-6 p.m. on the second Wednesday of the month (unless otherwise stated above). Additional seminars are held from time to time. Watch the Chambers website for details of a seminar following the forthcoming Supreme Court ruling in Coventry v. Lawrence (No.3) on principles of private nuisance and funding, including a contribution from collective redress/tort specialist Professor Rachael Mulheron, QMUL.
