

UKELA WASTE WORKING PARTY and SIX PUMP COURT CHAMBERS PRESENT

TOPICAL ISSUES IN CRIMINAL ENFORCEMENT BY REGULATORS

CURRENT ISSUES
(2 CPD points)

Speakers: Christopher Badger, Richard Banwell, Mark Watson, Gordon Wignall, David Travers QC and Stephen Hockman QC

Purpose: To identify the key current issues which arise when prosecuting or defending criminal cases involving waste matters, in particular those under the Environmental Permitting Regulations 2010

Topics:

- The decision to take formal enforcement action and legal grounds of challenge
- The existence of alternative civil sanctions for criminal offences and the extent to which these are available for offences contrary to the Environmental Permitting Regulations 2010
- Update on key substantive authorities concerning waste and criminal proceedings
- Confiscation in a regulatory context and the issue of proportionality
- Latest sentencing trends
- Practical use of the definitive sentencing guideline

Date/Venue: Wednesday 14th October 2015, 4-6 p.m. (tea and coffee available from 3.45pm) at 6 Pump Court Chambers.
To be followed by a complimentary drinks reception.

Cost: No charge for UKELA members (booking required).
Non-members £25 (second and subsequent bookings from same organisation charged at a reduced rate of £15).
