

SIX PUMP COURT CHAMBERS
REGULATORY LAW SEMINAR 2018 (BIRMINGHAM)

(5 CPD points)

Six Pump Court is very pleased to invite you to its annual Regulatory Law Seminar 2018 which will cover a variety of topics providing essential updates on specialist areas, informative discussion on topical issues and practical tips for those acting in regulatory matters.

Six Pump Court is a leading set in regulatory, planning and environmental law. It has previously been named as Environment and Planning Set of the Year by the Legal 500 and as Health and Safety Set of the Year at the Chambers UK Bar Awards. Its members regularly appear in high profile litigation.

“Six Pump Court is ‘the best regulatory chambers in the UK and remains the professionals’ choice”

Legal 500 (2017)

“Equally adept at defending as prosecuting, chambers is frequently instructed by household-name retailers, manufacturers, local authorities and regulators”

Chambers UK Bar Guide (2018)

“Six Pump Court is ‘a leading set’ for regulatory work, and some solicitors ‘rarely instruct outside chambers as it contains the all the skills needed to service work involving health and safety, environmental, trading standards and consumer law”

Legal 500 (2017)

Speakers/Panel Members: David Travers QC (Chair), Gordon Wignall, Megan Thomas, Ian Thomas, Pascal Bates, Richard Banwell, Gordon Menzies, Giles Atkinson, Stuart Jessop, Laura Phillips

Topics: Planning enforcement – the criminal perspective
Proceeds of Crime – a guide to avoiding the pitfalls in regulatory case
Regulation and enforcement of food law – recent developments
Challenging HSE Improvement and Prohibition Notices after Chevron
Enforcement decision making and sentencing in safety cases
Responding to Adverse Compliance Assessment Reports
GDPR – key enforcement risks and how to address them
Environmental enforcement and sentencing – recent developments
(Programme details overleaf)

Date: Friday 13 July 2018, 09:30 to 17:00. Lunch and refreshments provided.

Venue: Hotel du Vin, Church Street, Birmingham, B3 2NR

To book: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/regulatory-law-conference-birmingham-tickets-46435947168>

Contact bridget.tough@6pumpcourt.co.uk for enquiries

Cost: £95 per person. Subsequent bookings from your firm/organisation charged at a reduced rate of £75 per person.

SIX PUMP COURT CHAMBERS
REGULATORY LAW SEMINAR 2018 (BIRMINGHAM)

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

- 9:30 Registration and Coffee
- 10:00 Introduction from the Chair - David Travers QC
- 10:15 Planning enforcement – the criminal perspective - Giles Atkinson
- 10:45 Proceeds of crime – a guide to avoiding the pitfalls in regulatory cases - Gordon Menzies
- 11:15 Q&A
- 11:30 Coffee
- 11:45 Caveat emptor, caveat venditor and the role of the regulator - Ian Thomas and Laura Phillips
- 12:15 Challenging HSE improvement and prohibition notices after Chevron - David Travers QC
- 12:45 Q&A
- 13:00 Lunch (provided)
- 14:00 Enforcement decision making and sentencing in safety cases – are they at odds? - Pascal Bates
- 14:30 Judicial review challenges to regulatory notices - Gordon Wignall
- 15:00 Responding to adverse compliance assessment reports – Megan Thomas
- 15:20 Q&A/Coffee
- 15:30 GDPR – key enforcement risks and how to address them - Stuart Jessop
- 16:00 Environmental enforcement and sentencing – recent developments - Richard Banwell
- 16:30 Q&A

Six Pump Court Chambers – Band 1 Set

