

SIX PUMP COURT CHAMBERS SEMINAR: COMPANY DIRECTORS AND ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Speakers: Stephen Hockman QC (Chair), Charles Morgan and Christopher Badger
- Purpose: This seminar aims to examine the legal requirements placed on Directors in respect of the environment, in particular the extent to which Directors must have regard to the environment in the execution of their duties and the extent to which any duties can be delegated. The seminar will also look at growing trends in the regulatory landscape and how it is anticipated that the duties on Directors will develop in the near future.
- Topics: Legal duties placed on Directors
Delegation of responsibilities
Available guidance/case-law on s.172 CA 2006
Corporate reports
Current trends and developments
- Date/Venue: Thursday 28th February 2019 4.30-6.30pm (tea/coffee available from 4.15pm) at Six Pump Court Chambers. Drinks and canapés to follow.
- Cost: £35 per person, with second and subsequent bookings from your firm/organisation charged at a reduced rate of £20 per person.
- To book: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/company-directors-and-environmental-responsibilities-tickets-55632022878>
- Enquiries: bridget.tough@6pumpcourt.co.uk 020 7797 8456

Six Pump Court Chambers –Band 1 Set

